9:00	Biology I	Open	9th-12th	Elaine Walker	$75	Material covered in this class includes the five kingdoms, with special emphasis on plants and animals, genetics, classification techniques, ecosystems, and cell structure. Labs include work with microscopes and dissection of at least four different specimens. Written lab reports will be required. There will be a heavy emphasis on vocabulary terms. Tests will be given following each module. Tests will be created and graded by the instructor and emailed to the parent to proctor. There are no prerequisites for this class, but students who are currently taking Algebra I or a higher level math course, and who have completed physical science, will have the best success with this course. Supplies: Apologia Biology I, 2 nd edition textbook, 2" - 3ring binder; 5 tabbed dividers; spiral notebook(~70pgs); colored pencils; inexpensive flash drive; 3-hole paper punch (home) ; stapler (home).		7/17/2010
9:30	British Literature	Open	11th-12th	Kara Alexander	$100	British Literature will focus not only a study of the literature but a brief study of the history during some of the major historical eras. Several of the readings will incorporate small excerpts of larger works such as A Pilgrim's Progress, The Canterbury Tales, Morte d'Arthur, and many others. Several short stories will be included and I typically like to do a research paper. A weekly journal with assigned writings will be kept. The journals will facilitate class discussion. The student will need to purchase a copy of Mary Shelley's Frankenstein and a Shakespeare play to be determined.		7/17/2010
9:30	Shakespeare	Full	7th-12th	Jennifer Horn	$30	Shakespeare can be fun, and none of his plays proves that point better than A Midsummer Night's Dream . There's something for everyone: fairies, romance, really bad actors, and a guy whose name is Bottom. We'll play our way through the story, using games, art projects, and acting to learn about Shakespeare's words and characters. There is no one right version of Shakespeare's play, so students will develop ideas throughout the semester about what their perfect productions would be like, down to the costumes, setting, and casting. Lots of silliness is required for this class but performing is not required, though it helps.		7/17/2010
9:30	Dr. Seuss	Full	3-5 years	Nicole & John Rich	$20-$22	Each week we will read a different Dr. Seuss book, have a fun trivia session after the story to cover reading comprehension, and have a craft and snack that would pertain to the book. Each child would receive a take home packet to continue their fun during the week. A lot of pictures will be taken throughout the semester, put on CD, and offered to the parents for purchase ($2 extra).	8	7/17/2010
9:30	Health and Safety	Open	4-6 years	Renee Kyle	$20	The themes covered during this class will include: 1.) hygiene, germs/disease prevention, 2.) medicines, saying no to harmful substances, 3.) basic nutrition, 4.) rest & exercise, 5.) fire safety, 6.) bicycle/pedestrian safety, 7.) guns, household safety, calling 911), 8.) feelings, 9.) good touches/bad touches, and 10.) stranger safety.	8	7/17/2010
9:30	Creation to Christ	Open	K-2nd	Rachel O'Dell	$10	A broad overview of the Bible centering in on the gospel of our Lord Jesus. The Bible truths taught will include Creation, the Fall and promise of a Savior, the Flood, Tower of Babel, Birth of Christ, Boyhood of Christ, Baptism of Christ, Ministry of Christ, Death, Burial and Resurrection of Christ, and the Ascension and promise of a Return. Students will compile a notebook of coloring pages to reinforce the lessons that they will take home at the end of the semester. They will also be learning hymns (with motions!) in class and verses for homework that will reinforce the Biblical truths being taught. (This class will mirror the younger class, but with age appropriate adjustments so that families can learn together!)	10	7/17/2010

BHEA Fall 2010 - Enrichment Classes

Class Time	Class Name	Status	Ages	Instructor	Cost	Description	Maximum #	Last Updated
9:30	Nifty Fifty States	Full	1st-4th	Julie Griesen & Donna Williams	$40	We will have fun learning about each one of the 50 United States in the order that they were admitted to the union. Beginning with Delaware and ending with Hawaii, we will learn about each state's geography, natural resources, historical places/information, flag, bird, flower, tourist attractions, and funny and interesting facts about each state. We will do a craft or sample some food from the states we cover each week. In order to complete all 50 states, we will need to add a couple of classes to each semester. These dates will be given to you at kick-off. On the first day of class, your child will receive a spiral bound notebook in a manila envelope. This notebook is to be mailed to a relative or friend that lives in a different state. After that person writes some things about the state he/she lives in, that person will mail the notebook to someone else in another state. There will be a letter on the front of the notebook that will explain the process. The notebooks will be mailed back to us in March or April, and each child will see what states his/her notebook traveled through. You and your child will enjoy reading and learning more about the states the notebook visited. Each student will need to supply a three-ring notebook for the state information he/she will receive each week. Before the spring semester begins, a 3 or 4 inch three-ring binder will be needed in order to hold all the information for all 50 states. A first grader must be able to copy a few words off of a dry erase board	10	7/17/2010
9:30	Moody Science Classics	Open	3rd-5th	Caroline Roberts	$15	We will watch all 10 of the classic Moody Science Videos followed with discussion and activity. Each program has a message that harmonizes biblical truths with scientific evidence.	10	7/17/2010
9:30	Reader's Theatre	Full	3rd-5th	Sarah Small & Tammy Freeny	$25	Readers' Theatre is an exciting, low-pressure way to present plays without memorization, costumes, etc. The focus is on reading the script with expression and gestures. Students should be good readers but don't have to be fantastic readers for this class. Readers' Theatre has been shown to help children gain up to a full grade level in reading, but mostly it's just really fun!	15	7/17/2010
9:30	Let's Do Cursive	Open	1st-4th	Leslie Morstatt	$20	Children will learn cursive upper and lower case letters. Handwriting Without Tears workbooks will be used along with some activities that will assist in developing the motor memory for correct letter formation. The objectives are that the children will learn to use an acceptable pencil grasp; to form each lower and upper case letter correctly; to use correct spacing between letters within a word; and to use correct spacing between words. Children will take home their workbooks each week, as a help for correct letter formation when doing other school work. Occasional short homework assignments may be suggested. Children will receive individual assistance in learning correct letter formation. This is a wide age range since children can learn to write cursive as he or she learns printing. Cursive is helpful to children who have difficulty focusing on learning to print. All materials provided.	10	7/17/2010
9:30	Worshipping With Dance	Full	3rd +	Dee Dee Turaski	$25	Come celebrate Christmas with the Worship Dance Class! This semester we will concentrate on two beautiful lullabies: "What Child is This?" and "Silent Night" which explore the holy wonder of Jesus' birth. Styles will include lyrical dance and sign language. Students will relate the choreographed songs to scripture during a short Bible study each week. The Worship Dance Class typically makes several local presentations including the Monday Fun Finale at the end of the semester. This class is designed for students (male and female) 3rd grade and up including adults. The instructor, DeeDee Turaski, is a member of Monte Vista Baptist Church where she has led the Dance Ministry for eight years.	18	7/17/2010
9:30	Spanish Fun	Open	5th-8th	Suzette Laporte-Ayo	$70 or $7/week	Immersion in older children's programs occurs through conversation with the instructor and classmates, active involvement in games, music in Spanish, videos in Spanish, art projects, as well as other very fun activities. Spanish grammar is introduced in this class and continued throughout the year. The amount done depends on the dynamics of the group. Vocabulary themes are never repeated (except an occasional special theme) so your child will never "repeat" a class or the themes will never become old and boring, no matter which Spanish Fun!! class he or she signs up for.	10	7/17/2010

9:30	Drawing	Open	5th-8th	Jennifer McIntyre	$50	In this class students will learn methods and techniques in perspective, shading, foreshortening, surface, size contour lines and density. Cartoon drawing and realistic drawing will be used to teach the various methods and techniques. The first part of the semester will be geared to learning basic skills. The last part of the semester students will be encouraged to choose drawings from their area of interest. No matter the skill level, any student can enjoy this class and gain confidence in their drawing skills. Supplies needed: 3 ring binder, drawing pencils 2H-6B, white eraser. Hand outs and drawing paper will be supplied.	15	7/17/2010
9:30	Tennessee History	Open	6th-8th	Lisa Best & Caroline Milne	$35	We will be using the curriculum, State History from a Christian Perspective. We will cover history, geography, map skills, weather, industry, agriculture, major cities, citizenship, state and local government, and state symbols. Students use this material to create their own personalized state history textbook, adding pictures and information from free tourist literature and personal research. Students will research noteworthy Tennessee people, events and locations to share with the class.	10	7/17/2010
9:30	How to Read, Study, and Better Understand the Bible	Open	7th-8th	Angela Langley	$35	This course will be a broad survey of the many different types of literature and writings of the Bible within the historical context of the approximately 45 different inspired authors over a period of 1600 years. We will also examine the original recipients of these documents in terms of what these writings meant to them within their particular historical setting. Based on the original intent of the inspired message of these documents to the original recipients, we will then make meaningful application to our lives today. The overriding theme and emphasis of this class is that God is the central character in every page of the Bible, and it is our responsibility and great joy to discover Him as we study and read his divine message to us.	10	7/17/2010
9:30	Biggest Loser Club	Contact Instructor	adults	Laurie Leslie	$15*	Make this the year you reach your goal weight! If you have 15 or more pounds to lose (according to official height-weight charts), a great sense of humor, and can be a good competitor providing both support and encouragement to others while improving your health outlook and making really great friends, please join us. All money collected is used for prizes and incentives. *Can be paid anytime during the semester		7/17/2010
9:30	Ladies Bible Study	Open	adults	Sandra Harrison	10*	Based on Rose Marie Miller's book From Fear to Freedom. For all Christians who live in fear of never quite "measuring up," this honest account of one woman's spiritual crisis provides a new look at the transforming power of God's grace in the midst of weakness. You too will be encouraged to relinquish the role of spiritual "orphan" and embrace a forgiving heavenly father. "This book invites the soul to a celebration... It sings of grace and it offers a vision of hope we have lost in our day." - Dan Allender, Author *per book		7/17/2010
10:30	Literature & Composition	Open	9th-10th	Kara Alexander	$100	The literature and composition class will incorporate practice with writing the essay as well as a study of various genres including short story, drama, and the novel. A weekly journal with assigned writings will be kept. The journals will facilitate class discussion. The student will need to purchase their own full copies of Homer's The Odyssey , Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet , and George Orwell's Animal Farm . All other short stories, literature excerpts, and poetry will be provided to them.		7/17/2010
10:30	Spanish II	Open	9th-12th	Suzette Laporte-Ayo	$120	Students will continue to study Spanish grammar and will do many more conversation exercises. Cultural aspects will be further discussed. Students who get an A or a B in this class should be capable of testing out of at least the first level of College level Spanish.		7/17/2010
10:30	Exploring Ethics (Bible)	Open	9th-12th	Nancy Coleman	$40	The class will be discussion-oriented. The textbook is Exploring Ethics published by Christian Schools International. The students will read a selection each week prior to class. They will also have a writing assignment. In class we would discuss the week's reading. Some of the topics include Moral Choices, Work, Earthkeeping, Wealth and Poverty, etc. This is how the CSI website describes the textbook: "This anthology helps students ponder moral dilemmas. The selections define morality, discuss decision making, and address work and vocation, earthkeeping, wealth and poverty, racism and bigotry, medical—ethics, and peace." 10:30	All About Me	Full	3-5 years	Renee Kyle & Angela Montoya	$30	Through stories and discussion, children will be encouraged to recognize, appreciate, and document their special uniqueness, talents, strengths, likes (and dislikes, too). This class will be offered for two semesters in order to cover all of the themes for children to complete a keepsake "All About Me" notebook that they will treasure for many years. 2 semester class	8	7/17/2010
10:30	Five In A Row	Full	4-6 years	Tina Riley	$25	We will swim with Ping in the Yangtze, fly with Papa Bleirot across the English Channel, and have many more adventures as we have fun and learn about science, math, history, and art from the beloved books of "Five In A Row". There will be a new story every week with a hands on activity to solidify concepts taught in the books. We will also make a map to track our footsteps as we travel around the world learning about new places and cultures.	8	7/17/2010
10:30	World Geography	Open	K-2nd	Becca Curry	$25	In this class the children will learn about 10 different countries, 1. Brazil 2. England 3. France 4. India 5. Israel 6. Japan 7. Mexico 8. New Zealand 9. Nigeria 10. Russia. They will each have a passport and locate the country on a map and the globe, color the flag, learn about the culture of that country. We will also make a food from each country that they can taste.	10	7/17/2010
10:30	Favorite Authors & Illustrators	Full	1st-4th	Julie Griesen	$35	We will read selections by and discuss favorite children's authors and Illustrators, such as Eric Carle, Jan Brett, Tomie De Paolo, Leo Lionni, etc. Using various art supplies and techniques, we will create or recreate pictures imitating the illustrator we are discussing on a particular day. The second half of the semester the student will write and illustrate his/her own short story using a style similar to an author or illustrator we discussed in class, or his/her own style. The child will leave the class with a book he/she has written and illustrated.	10	7/17/2010
10:30	TLP: Pippi Longstocking	Canceled	3rd-5th	Jennifer Dailey	$20*	This course is designed to supplement your home language arts program with enrichment activities, interactive games, discovering other tall tales, showcasing the writing of a tall tale, and projects/crafts related to Pippi Longstocking. There will be a weekly discussion of comprehension questions from the guide and games to review and reinforce the spelling and vocabulary words for each unit. Students must be willing to do independent work at home, such as reading the assigned chapters, spelling/vocabulary activities, and writing assignments to complete an original work of a tall tale in order to keep pace with the class (grammar sections in the guide are optional according to the parent's discretion and will not be covered in class). This literature based study using a Total Language Plus (TLP) study on Pippi Longstocking, a tall tale, will be fun for girls and boys alike. Pippi's outrageous adventures will explore many parts of the world and Swedish culture. I will need a minimum of 6 students for this class. *$20, plus TLP study guide ($25), novel ($6), and S & H ($3) (During kick-off, you will have an opportunity to sign up for a group order, if interested)	10	7/17/2010
10:30	Smelly Chemistry	Canceled	3rd-6th	Michelle Nesbitt	$95*	We will work with our hand creating a variety of bath and body products and cleaning products, while learning about the chemical properties of essential and aromatherapy oils. Materials parents would need to provide and estimated cost: Parents need to provide a pair of rubber gloves, apron, and 2 empty glass quart jars with lids and 2 pint size glass jars with lids. The cost includes ALL materials used in making products in the class. This class is for both boys and girls and will include working with salts, oils, lotions, and essential oils. The finished products made by the students will be placed into bottles, jars, and other containers for their own use or to use as gifts. *I can accept paypal or set up a payment plan for the semester.	10	7/17/2010
10:30	Lego	Full	3rd-5th	Lisa Best & Jackie Evans	$50	Students will build and explore machines and mechanisms, investigate motorized machines, calibrate and capture wind, and study gearing mechanisms using the Lego Education Simple and Motorized Mechanisms base sets and curriculum. This class will give students a fundamental understanding of simple machines, structures, and mechanisms. Students will experiment with balanced and unbalanced forces and friction; measure distance, time, speed, and weight; and much more. This is a two semester commitment ($50 each semester) - we have 30 unique lessons to cover. We will start with the elementary schedule and add two extra dates to finish December 6.	16	7/17/2010

10:30	Hands-On Shakespeare	Open	4th-6th	Jennifer Horn	$30	Shakespeare can be fun, and none of his plays proves that point better than A Midsummer Night's Dream. There's something for everyone: fairies, romance, really bad actors, and a guy whose name is Bottom. We'll play our way through the story, using games, art projects, and acting to learn about Shakespeare's words and characters. There is no one right version of Shakespeare's play, so students will develop ideas throughout the semester about what their perfect productions would be like, down to the costumes, setting, and casting. Lots of silliness is required for this class but performing is not required, though it helps.		7/17/2010
10:30	Literature Circle: Poetry	Full	6th-8th	Sarah Small & Sheila Jackson	$30	This literature circle will look at poetry of all sorts. We'll spend some time analyzing poetry but not in the tedious way that you remember from your own school experience. Class will include some at-home work, including reading, writing, and a project. No text purchase necessary.	15	7/17/2010
10:30	Write On! Part 2 Continuation Course	Full	5th-8th	Julia Jinks	$30	For the students who have a clear understanding of the models and techniques used by the Institute for Excellence in Writing, the continuation course takes writing to a whole new level. Using the same notebook, charts and techniques, students will strengthen sentences and expand style and continue working on a 5-paragraph model. Each challenging assignment will take between 3-7 days to complete.	10	7/17/2010
10:30	Forensic Science	Full	6th-8th	Debbie Simmons	$40	Have you ever wondered how crimes are solved? Through forensics, field agents are able to tell who, what, where, when and why of the situation. We will learn about the different ways science helps solve crimes. Student will learn about finger printing, how evidence is handled, how bugs help determine what happened, how codes work and more! All supplies except notebook will be provided. I will need 2 parent helpers.	12	7/17/2010
10:30	Pilates	Open	teens and adults	Donna Williams	$25	Pilates is a toning and strengthening class that also focuses on flexibility and core muscle groups.	8	7/17/2010
12:00	Spanish I	Full	8th-12th	Suzette Laporte-Ayo	$120	Students will be introduced to the Spanish grammar in the first course combined with conversation with the instructor and classmates, video tapes and music. Cultural aspects will also be discussed. Students also are given Internet work, which helps complete required hours for a credit.		7/17/2010
12:00	Write On! High School Edition	Full	9th-12th	Julia Jinks	$50	Student Writing Intensive Level C, Institute for Excellence in Writing. Motivating the students to love writing is the main aim of this class. As students learn to use sophisticated writing tools, they will find that writing is simple and easy. The focus of instruction is writing well rather than grammar. Outlines and "Dress-ups" are taught throughout the course giving students specific and creative ways to enliven their writing which will give them more writing confidence. Write On! is RIGHT ON! This will be a 10-week class to follow the elementary schedule NOTE: Cost listed includes IEW notebook if notebook is not needed, cost is $30		7/17/2010
12:00	Rhythm Band	Full	3-5 years	Debbie Hankins	$30	In the class we will play instruments and do some singing also. I will use games and activities, crafts, and coloring sheets to learn about several different instruments, what they look like and sound like. We will learn how to play our instruments together with two or three time signatures. We will even make our own instrument for the parents to enjoy! I will need one parent helper.	8	7/17/2010
12:00	Arts & Crafts	Full	4-6 years	Paula Heslep	$25	Calling all 4-6 year olds with an interest in arts & crafts! We will be making craft projects and learning about numerous things, including....ladybugs, thankfulness, bats, storytelling using rolling pictures, fingerprint art, fish, peacocks and much much more! We will be painting, gluing, coloring, and fingerprinting to make neat art projects that you can take home each day. Parents: since we will be gluing on wiggly eyes and various small pieces, please don't enroll children who are still in the "put everything in the mouth" stage. I will need 2 parent helpers for this class.	8	7/17/2010
12:00	My First Little House	Open	K-2nd	Rachel Myers	$30	This class is based on the series "My First Little House." They are picture books based on the series by Laura Ingalls Wilder. We will read the books and discuss the differences between then and now. We will extend the experience by doing activities like crafts, "cooking", and listening to music. I have a cd called "Pa's Fiddle". It has music mentioned in the original series, and is played in the style Pa would have played his music. A class example might be: reading the book entitled, "Dance At Grandpa's." We will then play a bit of the cd and do some square dancing. Hopefully the children will be encouraged to read the other books written by Laura Ingalls Wilder.	10	7/17/2010

12:00	Intermediate Crochet	Open	adults	Claudia Deter	$35	Build upon knowledge from the beginner class by making more advanced pieces. I will provide yarn for the practice samples. We will learn the afghan stitch and other more intricate crochet stitching. Patterns will be intermediate level and if we do well, we may incorporate a more advanced pattern project to work on. Students will be responsible to bring their own needle set and yarn to make their personal projects.	10	7/17/2010
13:00	Creation to Christ	Full	3-5 years	Rachel O'Dell	$10	A broad overview of the Bible centering in on the gospel of our Lord Jesus. The Bible truths taught will include Creation, the Fall and promise of a Savior, the Flood, Tower of Babel, Birth of Christ, Boyhood of Christ, Baptism of Christ, Ministry of Christ, Death, Burial and Resurrection of Christ, and the Ascension and promise of a Return. Students will compile a notebook of coloring pages to reinforce the lessons that they will take home at the end of the semester. They will also be learning hymns (with motions!) in class and verses for homework that will reinforce the Biblical truths being taught.	8	7/17/2010
13:00	Public Speaking	Full	9th-12th	Dr. Marc Newman	$5	In this class we will learn: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • why public speaking is so important • different kinds of audiences, and how knowing about them changes our strategy • different ways of organizing a presentation to meet strategic goals • effective vocal and physical delivery -- including how to best use visual aids • the importance of image management to be sure we don't get in the way of our message • how to manage fear of public speaking But the bulk of the class will be dedicated to actually speaking and critiquing each other's speeches. Each student will give 8-10 presentations in class -- and will be expected to give at least as many outside of class. Grades for the class will be assessed on the basis of quizzes, speeches, and journals that students will keep to help them track their growth as speakers.		7/17/2010
13:00	Music Appreciation	Open	9th-12th; 7th-8th with modifications	Linda McCausland	$50	High-school students will earn a fine-arts credit as they study different musical time periods and listen to music of the great composers. They will learn about symphonies, sonatas, concertos, and more. Reading and listening assignments will require at least 2 hours of weekly homework. This class involves a one-year commitment, and is best suited for students who enjoy all types of music and who also love to read. Students will attend several concerts during the year, and submit reports in which they share impressions of the music they heard. Portions of DVD's will be shown in class that include major musical works, or tell the story of a specific composer. Participants will receive instruction on key points in music history and an overview of basic music theory. Along with periodic writing assignments, occasional quizzes, and concert attendance, participation in class discussion is expected. NOTE: Students supply two books: Classical Music for Dummies (with CD), and The Gift of Music (Smith & Carlson). Students will need to obtain their own books. In addition, students must have access to a computer with working speakers in order to complete listening assignments.		7/17/2010
13:00	Algebra I	Open	9th-12th	Jennifer Ammons	$85	The class will use "The Life of Fred" as a base at-home text and supplement at the weekly classes with hands-on and technology applications of the topics covered during the week's assignments. I am also planning on including two open study-hall-like opportunities per week on Wednesday and Friday afternoons (two hours each) at the Library to help with any questions that arise during the week. A weekly course overview of either course is available by emailing the instructor		7/17/2010

Some of the topics covered will be: *Preparations for Permit and License *Rules and Regulations *Drivers Safety (cell phone/texting will be talked about) *Vehicle Safety Check *Defensive Driving *Driving in all types of Weather *Emergency Situations *Vehicle Safety Kit *How to Change a Tire - hands on *Where's the Dipstick? - hands on *Parking (in-car training) *Road Rage *Jesus is a Passenger in your Vehicle Kevin is a CDL Class A Truck Driver (over-the-road) for 7 years and has logged over 1 million accident-free miles.	10	7/17/2010
13:00	God's Amazing Creatures & Me	Open	K-2nd	Renee Kyle	$25	This class is based on the devotional by Helen Haidle. Through the study of a different animal each week, children will learn how each animal's God-given characteristics provide wonderful principles that we can also follow and practice in our daily Christian life.	10	7/17/2010
13:00	Art	Open	K-4th	Jennifer McIntyre	$45	Every week we will visit an artist. Norval Morrisseau, Albert Bierstadt, Robert Jew, Hsiang Sheng-mo, Andy Warhol, Edward Julius Detmold, Pablo Picasso, Ito Jakuchu, and John Gonzales are the artists that we will be working with this semester. Realistic artists to the abstract. Constant review is done on artist names, works studied and a notable sentence or two about each artist. Projects will cover things like color theory, design, composition, and drawing. I try to incorporate a variety of media from acrylic paint to markers, from media that they may not have at home to the everyday materials that they can use in a new way. I always am trying to get kids to see how they can be just as creative at home. Work will be kept in a folder along with their write ups about each artist. Folder, handouts and art materials supplied.	15	7/17/2010
13:00	Spanish Fun!	Open	1st-4th	Suzette Laporte-Ayo	$70 or $7/week	Children will be immersed in Spanish through games & songs typical of the Instructor's native country, videos in Spanish, art projects, & other fun activities. Themes are never repeated (except an occasional special one) so your child will never "repeat" a class, no matter which Spanish Fun!! class he or she signs up for. Spanish Fun!! classes work on a multi-tier system. As the child progresses, they will be recognized for reaching a new tier or level within the class. Within the same class we may have several levels of students working together. Once a student has been with Spanish Fun!! for a while & attained certain levels he or she may be chosen to be in an advanced class.	10	7/17/2010
13:00	Five Senses Cooking	Open	3rd-6th	Debbie Simmons	$30	Student will learn how to use each of their senses in preparing a meal for the family. We will cover learning how to make food look pleasant, sound appetizing, smell delicious, be fun to eat (touch), and of course, taste delightful! Maximum # of students: 12 (minimum 4 students). I will need 2 parent helpers.	10	7/17/2010
13:00	Crime Scene Investigation	Full	3rd-5th	Amber Hockman & Shannon French	$35	Studying Crime Scene Investigation is an exciting way to make science come to life! During this class, the students will have the opportunity to participate in a variety of hands-on experiments, culminating in a "Murder Mystery." Studying DNA, blood, and skeletons are all possible in the crime lab, so send your child ready to investigate!	10	7/17/2010
13:00	Introduction to IEW	Full	3rd-4th	Julia Jinks	$30	While learning to write and speak students will find writing to be surprisingly enjoyable with the Institute for Excellence in Writing techniques. Students will be motivated to write as they use check-lists that turn their assignments into a game each and every week. Presenting the writing to the class will allow students an opportunity to become public speakers to their peers. No previous writing experience required.	10	7/17/2010
13:00	Creative Writing	Full	6th-8th	Sarah Small	$30	This class is all about having fun with language and words while exploring the world of creative writing. Students will have weekly journal writing and other at-home assignments. No text purchase necessary.	15	7/17/2010
13:00	Study Skills	Canceled	7th-9th	Diane Benson	$20	This class will focus on various study skills including note-taking techniques, time management, learning styles, reading textbooks, and test taking. Students will need to have access to the Internet outside of class in order to complete various inventories and reading assignments. This class will provide students with lots of information and tips for "studying smarter, not harder". I will ask that students come to class prepared to implement these techniques in their home school studies (or at least give them a try). This will be a 10 week course to follow the elementary schedule.	10	7/17/2010

13:00	Anatomy & Physiology	Open	6th-8th	Tina Riley	$45	All creation is awe-inspiring, but the work of the human body, created in the very image of God, is especially jaw-dropping! This study of anatomy and physiology showcases the intricacy and design of the human body, from DNA and cell creation to the skeletal, muscular, digestive, respiratory, cardiovascular, nervous/endocrine, immune, and intergumentary systems. Integrated with health and nutrition information, as well as plenty of scripture and biblical application, this complete guide to the human body is written in an enjoyable, conversational tone that will keep kids engaged. Experiments, notebooking assignments, narration, and a "personal person project" provide interaction with concepts outside of reading, and help to solidify understanding. We will attempt to integrate some disease process as we study each body system. $45 plus textbook(~$28) and notebooking journal (~$17)/ 2 semester commitment (will meet for 12 weeks each semester)	10	7/17/2010
13:00	Beginning Crochet	Open	teens and adults	Claudia Deter	$35	Learn the basic crochet stitches and make fun projects. You will have something you can keep when we are finished that you have made yourself. I will provide the needles and yarn for the practice samples. Students will be responsible for yarn to make their own personal projects.	10	7/17/2010
13:00	Hands-On Shakespeare	Open	adults	Jennifer Horn	$15	This new class will focus on A Midsummer Night's Dream and can actually be whatever the class wants it to be. I would be happy to do a version of the same course that I'm teaching younger students (lots of silliness, dress up, and games) or focus on how to teach Shakespeare to others (looking at things like language and rhythm and talking about what film and audio recordings could be useful) or (most probably) a mixture of both. I'm open to the needs and requests of the class and just interested in spreading a love for Shakespeare, so the bottom line is that class members should learn a lot and also manage to have some fun.		7/17/2010
14:00	Algebra II	Open	9th-12th	Jennifer Ammons	$85	The class will use "The Life of Fred" as a base at-home text and supplement at the weekly classes with hands-on and technology applications of the topics covered during the week's assignments. I am also planning on including two open study-hall-like opportunities per week on Wednesday and Friday afternoons (two hours each) at the Library to help with any questions that arise during the week. A weekly course overview of either course is available by emailing the instructor.		7/17/2010
14:00	Yearbook	Full	7th-12th	Erica Fleming	$20	During the first semester the teens will be coached on how to capture good photos and receive instruction in photo editing. Some journalism will be included, by interviewing people and gathering information for the pages in the yearbook they will be assigned. They will also be helping on the class picture days. They will be involved in some way with the selling of yearbooks, advertisements (if we choose to include theses), and fundraisers (if we have to have them). The spring semester, I will teach them how to use the yearbook program and we will begin constructing the layout during this time. The second semester will still include doing most of the activities they will learn during the fall semester. NOTE: Course fee is $30 if enrolling multiple students.		7/17/2010
14:00	Chemistry I	Open	9th-12th	Elaine Walker	$75	This class is intended to prepare students for college level chemistry courses. Although chemistry can be challenging, we will cover the concepts of general chemistry as painlessly as possible. Class will be divided between understanding new concepts and laboratory experiments. Written lab reports will be required. Tests will be given and proctored at home by the parents, but will be created and graded by the instructor. Alternative labs from those in the book may be substituted to give a better understanding of the material. Prerequisite: Algebra I. Supplies: Apologia Chemistry I, 2nd edition, 2-inexpensive flash drives.		7/17/2010

14:00	Boys Book Club	Open	2nd-7th	Diane Benson & Leslie Morstatt	$8	The Boys Adventure Book Club is for boys who enjoy reading or being read to, discussing the book, and doing "boy" activities (i.e., acting out parts or playing games) that relate to the book. We will begin the club with the Redwall series by Brian Jacques. The first book is entitled Redwall. When we meet, the book should be completely read. We will discuss the next book in the series each time we meet. Boys should provide their own books. The books may be read by the child or read to him. These books would make good family read-alouds. The October book is entitled Mossflower and the November book is Mattimeo. These books are easily found at the library, used book stores, and Amazon. Redwall is an action adventure story. A group of peaceful mice, squirrels, and moles are pitted against animal villains (weasels, foxes, and stoats). The villains want to take over the Abbey in which the peaceful animals live. It is a thrilling good versus evil saga. You can read reviews of the books on Amazon and http://www.kidsreads.com/series/series-redwall.asp. We will meet once per month (Sept 27, Oct 25, Nov 22).		7/17/2010
14:00	Beginning Crochet	Open	5th-8th	Claudia Deter	$35	Working with needle crafts teaches several skills, besides having fun. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fine motor coordination • Reading comprehension • Math skills • Critical thinking and problem-solving • Responsibility • Ability to focus and follow through • Persistence • Positive social behaviors • Using available materials to work with • Personal hygiene Learn the basic crochet stitches and make fun projects. You will have something you can keep when we are finished that you have made yourself. I will provide the needles and yarn for the practice samples. Students will be responsible for yarn to make their own personal projects.	10	7/17/2010
14:00	Recycled Art	Open	5th-8th	Amber Hockman & Shannon French	$30	Art can be found all around us- and can be created from about anything! This class will let students explore all types of art, including sculpture, mobiles, painting, and comics. While completing a lapbook on a variety of artists, the students will also have the opportunity to create their own art, using many objects straight from the recycling bin. The class slogan? Recycle, Reuse, and Recreate!	12	7/17/2010
